DETAILED ACTION

1. Claim(s) 1-2 are product by process claims. Product-by Process claims are not limited to the manipulations of the recited steps, only the structure implied. See MPEP 2113. "[Elven though product-by process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process." In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPO 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

Hence, only the shape of the crank gear is given patentable weight, not the manner in which it was obtained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112: The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention,
- 3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as

Claims 1-2 recite "a configuration of the crank gear is modified...", however, it is unclear what this configuration is. No actual structure is recited.

4 Claim 1 recites the limitation "the circular crank gear". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

 The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

 Claims 1-2 (as best understood by the examiner) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hattan 3.259.398.

Hattan discloses a bicycle comprising an elliptical crank gear 23a having a crank 18 with a pedal 16 at its distal end mounted on a central axis thereof and rotating in conjunction with the rotation of the crank, wherein vertical radius of the crank gear is increased when the crank reaches a crank angular position where the cyclist needs to exert an increased pressure upon the pedal whereas the vertical radius of the crank is decreased when the crank reaches a crank angular position where the cyclist needs to reduce the pressure upon the pedal; wherein a distance between the central axis of the crank gear and a start point of engagement with a flexible drive component 25, is increased, and that the distance between the central axis of the crank gear and the start point of engagement with the flexible drive component is relatively longer when the crank reaches a crank angular position where the cyclist needs to increase the pressure upon the pedal during one crank stroke.
